

A2 Is this pattern of development deliverable in infrastructure and market terms?

1. We have outstanding concerns on the provisioning of the required infrastructure to facilitate development, with particular reference to the necessary green infrastructure and the infrastructure needed to serve development with adequate water supply and waste water disposal without adversely impacting the integrity of European designated sites. Our concerns are over the timely deliverability of the required infrastructure, which is largely dependent on parties beyond the control of the GNDP.