Can you please arrange for the attached note from the Inspectors concerning an extra Hearing day to be put on the website.

“We have considered several requests that we should hold an additional day of the hearings to consider material alternative to that set out in the advertised changes.

However, we consider that the discussions on 9 December, supplemented by the subsequent written responses that have been made to the advertised proposed changes, provide us with an adequate understanding of the issues necessary to reach a judgement on the soundness of the JCS in those respects. We have therefore decided that it is not necessary to hold an additional day of the hearings.”

Many thanks

Louise
